In re Holocaust Victim Assets Litigation
Case No. CV96-4849

Certified Denial

to Claimant [REDACTED]

Claimed Account Owners: Isidor Klein, Willy Klein, Karl Klein and Max Klein¹

Claim Number: 224333/SB

This determination is based on the claim of [REDACTED] (the “Claimant”) to a Swiss bank account potentially owned by Isidor Klein, Willy Klein, Karl Klein and Max Klein. The CRT did not locate an account belonging to Isidor (Isidore) Klein (Kleine) in the Account History Database prepared pursuant to the investigation of the Independent Committee of Eminent Persons (“ICEP” or “ICEP Investigation”), which identified accounts probably or possibly belonging to Victims of Nazi Persecution, as defined in the Rules Governing the Claims Resolution Process, as amended (the “Rules”).

This Certified Denial is to a Swiss bank account published on the list of account owners in 2005 and potentially owned by the Claimant’s relatives, Willy Klein, Karl Klein and Max Klein (the “Claimed Account Owners”).

All denials are published, but where a claimant has requested confidentiality, as in this case, the names of the claimant, any relatives of the claimant other than the account owner, and the bank have been redacted.

Information Provided by the Claimant

The Claimant did not state in her claim where Willy Klein, Karl Klein and Max Klein resided, but the CRT notes from information provided in the instant claim and in other claims submitted to the CRT is consistent with Willy Klein, Karl Klein and Max Klein having resided in Hungary.

The CRT’s Investigation

The CRT matched the names of Willy Klein, Karl Klein and Max Klein to the names of all account owners in the Account History Database and identified accounts belonging to individuals whose names match, or are substantially similar to, the name of the Claimed Account Owners. In doing so, the CRT used advanced name matching systems and computer programs, and considered variations of names, including name variations provided by Yad Vashem, The Holocaust Martyrs' and Heroes' Remembrance Authority, in Jerusalem, Israel, to ensure that all possible name matches were identified. However, a close review of the relevant bank records indicated that the information contained therein was inconsistent with the information the Claimant provided regarding the Claimed Account Owners. Accordingly, the CRT was unable to conclude that any of these accounts belonged to the Claimed Account Owners.

The CRT's Analysis

Identification of the Account Owners

The list below contains names of account owners that match the names of the Claimed Account Owners and the reasons why the CRT has concluded that the Claimed Account Owners and an account owner are not the same person. If an account owner's place of residence was published, that place of residence is also listed.

Name: Willy Klein

Account Identification Number: 1011846

Specifically, the Claimant indicated that her relative, Willy Klein, resided in Hungary. In contrast, the records show that the account owner resided in a different country.

Name: Karl Klein

Account Identification Number: 4019699

Specifically, the Claimant indicated that her relative, Karl Klein, resided in Hungary. In contrast, the records show that the account owner resided in a different country.

Name: Max H. Klein (power of attorney holder)

Account Identification Number: 5024847

Specifically, the Claimant indicated that her relative, Max Klein, resided in Hungary. In contrast, the records show that the power of attorney holder resided in a different country. In addition, the CRT notes that the Claimant did not identify the account owner, and that under Swiss law, a power of attorney holder is not considered to be the owner of an account. After a power of attorney holder dies, his or her powers in an account no longer exist, and they do not pass to his or her heirs. Therefore, even if the Claimant had identified the power of attorney holder, but not the account owner, as their relative, the Claimant would not have been entitled to the account unless there was evidence in the records that the power of attorney holder and the account owner were related.

The Claimant should note that all accounts awarded by the CRT are published upon release on the CRT's website at www.crt-ii.org.

Right of Appeal and Request for Reconsideration

Pursuant to Article 30 of the Rules Governing the Claims Resolution Process, as amended (the “Rules”), the Claimant may appeal this decision or submit a request for reconsideration within ninety (90) days of the date of the letter accompanying this decision.

An appeal must be based upon a plausible suggestion of error regarding the CRT’s conclusions set out in this decision. Any appeals which are submitted without a plausible suggestion of error shall be summarily denied. A request for reconsideration must be based on new documentary evidence not previously presented to the CRT that, if considered, would have led to a different outcome of the claim. Claimants should briefly explain the relevance of the newly submitted documents in view of the conclusions stated in the certified decision.

The Claimant should send appeals and/or requests for reconsideration in writing to the following address: Oren Wiener, Claims Resolution Tribunal, Attention: Appeals / Request for Reconsideration, P.O. Box 9564, 8036 Zurich, Switzerland. If more than one account has been treated in this decision, the Claimant should identify the account, including, where available, the Account Identification Number, that forms the basis of the appeal and/or request for reconsideration.

Scope of the Denial

The CRT now considers the Claimant’s claim to the accounts of Isidor Klein, Willy Klein, Karl Klein and Max Klein closed. Please note that this decision applies only to the Claim Number and Claimed Account Owners identified herein, and that the CRT is aware that the Claimant may have claimed accounts held by other persons or entities both in the Claim Number specified above and in other claims submitted to the CRT.

Certification of the Denial

The CRT certifies this Denial for approval by the Court.
