In re Holocaust Victim Assets Litigation
Case No. CV96-4849

Certified Denial

to Claimant [REDACTED]

Claimed Account Owners: Julius Meier and Isidor Meier¹

Claim Numbers: 741620/NB; 200954/NB

This determination is based on the claims of [REDACTED] (the “Claimant”) to Swiss bank accounts potentially owned by Julius Meier and Isidor Meier. The CRT did not locate an account belonging to Isidor Meier (Meyer) in the Account History Database prepared pursuant to the investigation of the Independent Committee of Eminent Persons (“ICEP” or “ICEP Investigation”), which identified accounts probably or possibly belonging to Victims of Nazi Persecution, as defined in the Rules Governing the Claims Resolution Process, as amended (the “Rules”).

This Certified Denial is to a Swiss bank account potentially owned by the Claimant’s father, Julius Meier (Meyer, Michel) (the “Claimed Account Owner”).

All denials are published, but where a claimant has requested confidentiality, as in this case, the names of the claimant, any relatives of the claimant other than the account owner, and the bank have been redacted.

Information Provided by the Claimant

The Claimant submitted a claim stating that his father, Julius Meier, who was Jewish, resided in Burgsteinfurt, Germany and fled Germany for Chile via Hamburg, Germany, and Amsterdam, the Netherlands in 1938. The Claimant also indicated that his father passed away on 3 January 1969. In support of his claim, the Claimant submitted documents that show that his father’s last name was spelled “Meyer.”

The CRT’s Investigation

The CRT matched the name of Julius Meier (Meyer, Michel) to the names of all account owners in the Account History Database and identified accounts belonging to individuals whose names match, or are substantially similar to, the name of the Claimed Account Owner. In doing so, the ¹ The Claimant should note that this determination relates only to the Claim Numbers and Claimed Account Owners stated above, and that the CRT is aware that the Claimant may have submitted other claims.

CRT used advanced name matching systems and computer programs, and considered variations of names, including name variations provided by Yad Vashem, The Holocaust Martyrs' and Heroes' Remembrance Authority, in Jerusalem, Israel, to ensure that all possible name matches were identified. However, a close review of the relevant bank records indicated that the information contained therein was inconsistent with the information the Claimant provided regarding the Claimed Account Owner. Accordingly, the CRT was unable to conclude that any of these accounts belonged to the Claimed Account Owner.

The CRT's Analysis

Identification of the Account Owner

The list below contains names of account owners that match the name of the Claimed Account Owner and the reasons why the CRT has concluded that the Claimed Account Owner and an account owner are not the same person. If an account owner's place of residence was published, that place of residence is also listed.

Name: Julius Meier

Account Identification Number: 1001166

Specifically, the Claimant stated that his father, Julius Meier held a Swiss bank account. The Claimant submitted documents showing that his father's last name was spelled "Meyer." The CRT determines that in this case, the information and evidence the Claimant submitted in support of his claim did not plausibly demonstrate that the Claimant's relative and the account owner were the same person. This determination is based on a variety of factors, including but not limited to, whether the Claimant identified an exact spelling of the account owner's name; whether the Claimant was able to provide documentation linking his surname to that of the account owner, thereby demonstrating a familial relationship to a person with the same name as the account owner; whether the Claimant identified the account owner's name prior to its publication; and/or whether the fate of the Claimant's relative is consistent with the disposition of the claimed account. The CRT notes that, according to Article 18 of the Rules Governing the Claims Resolution Process, as amended (the "Rules"), a claim to the CRT is inadmissible if, among other reasons, the claim is based essentially on a statement that the Claimant or his or her relative and the account owner have the same or similar last name, or the Claimant has provided no relevant information and/or documentation regarding his or her relationship to the account owner. In this case, the Claimant either has based his/her claim to this account essentially on the fact that his/her relative and the account owner have the same or similar last name, or has not provided sufficient information or documentation regarding his/her relationship to the account owner, including documentation linking the Claimant's name to that of the account owner. The CRT has deemed this claim admissible to ensure that no Class Member with a Deposited Assets claim is precluded by technical procedural requirements from having his or her claim fairly adjudicated. However, based upon the information provided, the CRT is unable to conclude that the Claimant has identified the account owner as his/her relative.

Name: J. Meyer

Account Identification Number: 1001142

Specifically, the Claimant stated that Julius Meier was his father. In contrast, the records show that the account owner was female.

Name: J. Meyer (Düsseldorf, Germany)

Account Identification Number: 1011323

Specifically, the Claimant stated that his father, Julius Meier, resided in Burgsteinfurt and fled Germany for Chile via Hamburg in 1938. In contrast, the records indicate that the account owner had a different first name and resided in Düsseldorf, which is over 100 kilometers from Burgsteinfurt and over 200 kilometers from Hamburg.

Name: J. Meyer (Basel, Switzerland)

Account Identification Number: 5030757

Specifically, the Claimant stated that his father, Julius Meier, resided in Germany until he fled Germany for Chile via the Netherlands. The Claimant further indicated that Julius Meier died in 1969. In contrast, the records show that the account owner resided in Switzerland and had a different fate.

Name: Jules Meyer (Lyon, France)

Account Identification Numbers: 5032834, 5032835, 5034589, 5034609

Specifically, the Claimant stated that his father, Julius Meier, resided in Germany until he fled Germany for Chile via the Netherlands. In contrast, the records show that the account owner resided in France.

The CRT has taken utmost care in matching the names of the person identified by the Claimant as a possible account owner to names of actual account owners identified in the Account History Database prepared pursuant to the ICEP Investigation, which identified accounts probably or possibly belonging to Victims of Nazi Persecution, as defined in the Rules. The CRT has reviewed this claim carefully and analyzed matches to accounts belonging to account owners with alternative spellings of Julius Meier's last name, which include Mayer and Maier, and has determined that these accounts did not belong to the Claimed Account Owner.

Right of Appeal and Request for Reconsideration

Pursuant to Article 30 of the Rules, the Claimant may appeal this decision or submit a request for reconsideration within ninety (90) days of the date of the letter accompanying this decision.

An appeal must be based upon a plausible suggestion of error regarding the CRT's conclusions set out in this decision. Any appeals which are submitted without a plausible suggestion of error shall be summarily denied. A request for reconsideration must be based on new documentary evidence not previously presented to the CRT that, if considered, would have led to a different outcome of the claims. Claimants should briefly explain the relevance of the newly submitted documents in view of the conclusions stated in the certified decision.

The Claimant should send appeals and/or requests for reconsideration in writing to the following address: Oren Wiener, Claims Resolution Tribunal, Attention: Appeals / Request for Reconsideration, P.O. Box 9564, 8036 Zurich, Switzerland. If more than one account has been treated in this decision, the Claimant should identify the account, including, where available, the Account Identification Number, that forms the basis of the appeal and/or request for reconsideration.

Scope of the Denial

The CRT now considers the Claimant's claims to the accounts of Julius Meier and Isidor Meier closed. Please note that this decision applies only to the Claim Numbers and Claimed Account Owners identified herein, and that the CRT is aware that the Claimant may have claimed accounts held by other persons or entities both in the Claim Numbers specified above and in other claims submitted to the CRT.

Certification of the Denial

The CRT certifies this Denial for approval by the Court.
