In re Holocaust Victim Assets Litigation
Case No. CV96-4849

Certified Denial

to Claimant [REDACTED]

Claimed Account Owners: Julie Müller and Eduard Wotawa¹

Claim Number: 201931/RT

This determination is based on the claim of [REDACTED] (the “Claimant”) to Swiss bank accounts potentially owned by Julie Müller and Eduard Wotawa. The CRT did not locate an account belonging to Eduard Wotawa in the Account History Database prepared pursuant to the investigation of the Independent Committee of Eminent Persons (“ICEP” or “ICEP Investigation”), which identified accounts probably or possibly belonging to Victims of Nazi Persecution, as defined in the Rules Governing the Claims Resolution Process, as amended (the “Rules”).

This Certified Denial is to a Swiss bank account potentially owned by the Claimant’s mother, Julie Müller (Wotawa) (the “Claimed Account Owner”).

All denials are published, but where a claimant has requested confidentiality, as in this case, the names of the claimant, any relatives of the claimant other than the account owner, and the bank have been redacted.

Information Provided by the Claimant

The Claimant submitted a claim stating that Julie Müller, who was married to a Jewish spouse, resided in Sontheim close to Heilbronn and Frankfurt am Main, Germany before she moved to Vienna, Austria after the incorporation of Austria into the Reich (the Anschluss). The CRT notes that Sontheim is a part of Heilbronn.

The CRT’s Investigation

The CRT matched the name of Julie Müller (Wotawa) to the names of all account owners in the Account History Database and identified accounts belonging to individuals whose names match, or are substantially similar to, the name of the Claimed Account Owner. In doing so, the CRT used advanced name matching systems and computer programs, and considered variations of names, including name variations provided by Yad Vashem, The Holocaust Martyrs' and Heroes' Remembrance Authority, in Jerusalem, Israel, to ensure that all possible name matches were identified. However, a close review of the relevant bank records indicated that the information contained therein was inconsistent with the information the Claimant provided regarding the Claimed Account Owner. Accordingly, the CRT was unable to conclude that any of these accounts belonged to the Claimed Account Owner.

The CRT's Analysis

Identification of the Account Owner

The list below contains names of account owners that match the name of the Claimed Account Owner and the reasons why the CRT has concluded that the Claimed Account Owner and an account owner are not the same person. If an account owner's place of residence was published, that place of residence is also listed.

Name: J. H. Müller (Germany)

Account Identification Numbers: 1010693; 1010694

Specifically, the Claimant stated that his mother, Julie Müller, resided in Sontheim/Heilbron, and Frankfurt am Main. In contrast, the records show that the account owner resided in a different city which is over 250 kilometers from Sontheim/Heilbron and over 350 kilometers from Frankfurt am Main. The CRT further notes that Heilbron, Frankfurt am Main and the account owner's city of residence are major cities, thus rendering it unlikely that a resident of Sontheim/Heilbron or Frankfurt am Main would indicate the account owner's distant city of residence as his or her place of residence, even for the purpose of maintaining a Swiss bank account.

Name: Julie Müller (Germany)

Account Identification Number: 1010696

Specifically, the Claimant stated that his mother, Julie Müller, resided in Sontheim/Heilbron and Frankfurt am Main. In contrast, the records show that the account owner resided in a different city which is over 50 kilometers from Sontheim/Heilbron and over 200 kilometers from Frankfurt am Main. The CRT further notes that Heilbron, Frankfurt am Main and the account owner's city of residence all are major cities, thus rendering it unlikely that a resident of Sontheim/Heilbron or Frankfurt am Main would indicate the account owner's city of residence as his or her place of residence, even for the purpose of maintaining a Swiss bank account.

The Claimant should note that all accounts awarded by the CRT are published upon release on the CRT's website at www.crt-ii.org.

Right of Appeal and Request for Reconsideration

Pursuant to Article 30 of the Rules Governing the Claims Resolution Process, as amended (the "Rules"), the Claimant may appeal this decision or submit a request for reconsideration within ninety (90) days of the date of the letter accompanying this decision.

An appeal must be based upon a plausible suggestion of error regarding the CRT's conclusions set out in this decision. Any appeals which are submitted without a plausible suggestion of error shall be summarily denied. A request for reconsideration must be based on new documentary evidence not previously presented to the CRT that, if considered, would have led to a different outcome of the claim. Claimants should briefly explain the relevance of the newly submitted documents in view of the conclusions stated in the certified decision.

The Claimant should send appeals and/or requests for reconsideration in writing to the following address: Oren Wiener, Claims Resolution Tribunal, Attention: Appeals / Request for Reconsideration, P.O. Box 9564, 8036 Zurich, Switzerland. If more than one account has been treated in this decision, the Claimant should identify the account, including, where available, the Account Identification Number, that forms the basis of the appeal and/or request for reconsideration.

Scope of the Denial

The CRT now considers the Claimant's claim to the accounts of Julie Müller and Eduard Wotawa closed. Please note that this decision applies only to the Claim Number and Claimed Account Owners identified herein, and that the CRT is aware that the Claimant may have claimed accounts held by other persons or entities both in the Claim Number specified above and in other claims submitted to the CRT.

Certification of the Denial

The CRT certifies this Denial for approval by the Court.
